LAW COURTS AND TRIBUNAL

Service Charter

The ACT Law Courts and Tribunal (ACTLCT) aims to provide high quality support to judicial officers and tribunal members and high quality services to the public using the courts and tribunal.

The ACTLCT recognises customers of the Courts and Tribunal have different needs and expectations.

The ACTLCT is committed to ensuring the principles of access and equity for all of our customers, regardless of sex, race, religion, language or national or ethnic origin.

The ACTLCT values our customers and aims to provide support to customers in accordance with this Service Charter.

Our Organisational Values

The values of the ACTLCT are Respect, Integrity, Collaboration and Innovation.

Respect

- We take pride in our work;
- We value the contribution of others; and
- We relate to colleagues and clients in a fair, decent and respectful manner.

Integrity

- We do what we say we will do, and respond appropriately when the unexpected occurs;
- We take responsibility and are accountable for our decisions and actions; and
- We engage genuinely with the community, managing resources entrusted to us honestly and responsibly.

Collaboration

- We work openly and share information to reach shared goals; and
- We take on board other views when solving problems and welcome feedback on how we can do things better.

Innovation

- We look for ways to continuously improve our services and skills; and
- We are open to change and new ideas from all sources.

Our Behaviours

Our Staff must:

- undertake their duties with reasonable care and diligence, impartiality and honesty;
- uphold the values of the public service; and
- act with integrity and uphold the reputation of the courts, ACAT and ACTLCT.

You can expect ACTLCT staff to:

- be professional, polite and impartial;
- provide a prompt and efficient service;
- do our best to protect the welfare and rights of court and tribunal users; and
- respond within the following timeframes:
 - Answer phone calls and return phone messages within 1 business day;
 - Respond to letters within 5 business days; and
 - Process bails and recognisances within 30 minutes.
