Central Criminal List Callover Instructions

Practitioners should ensure their callover information sheets are sent to the relevant email addresses by close of business 7 days prior to the relevant callover.

A copy of the information sheet proforma can be found on the Supreme Court website at: https://courts.act.gov.au/_data/assets/word_doc/0007/2307643/Callover-Information-sheet.docx

Any election for judge alone trial is to be filed 7 days prior to the relevant callover.

At the callover, the representatives of the parties should have full instructions and be prepared to advise the Court as to:

- whether the matter is to proceed by trial by jury or a trial by judge alone (election having been filed);
- whether there are any pre-trial applications or pre-trial hearings in the matter which have not already been heard;
- any prospects of the matter resolving without the need for a trial;
- the names of counsel appearing in the matter;
- counsel and witness unavailability during the sitting time;
- the expected duration of the trial;
- any requirement for CCTV, video conferencing or the recording of evidence; and
- any other relevant matter which could affect the hearing of the trial.

A trial date for each matter ready to proceed in the relevant sittings will usually be given at the callover.

Practitioners should take care to ensure that the information provided in the callover sheet is complete and accurate. Information provided to the court for the first time at the callover may not be considered when listing a matter for trial.

Criminal Case Conferencing

The Criminal Case Conferencing dates for 2027 are:

- Week commencing 1 February 2027
- Week commencing 7 June 2027;
- Week commencing 9 August 2027
- Week commencing 11 October 2027

The court may add further case conferencing weeks if required.
